Beyond the Classroom
Living and Learning Program

...is now accepting applications for Spring 2013

BTC offers opportunities to:
- Explore civic issues that matter to you.
- Develop leadership skills for the nonprofit sector.
- Meet activists with visionary ideas for solving the world’s greatest civic issues.
- Work closely with faculty and staff to develop a relevant professional portfolio.
- Gain real work experience through competitive internships in the Washington, DC area and beyond.
- Participate in documentary film series that address major global issues.
- Engage in community service and civic learning opportunities.
- Take charge of your education and go “beyond the classroom.”

BTC is a three semester program:

FIRST SEMESTER
Three credit, interdisciplinary seminar on civic engagement and social change in a global context.

SECOND SEMESTER
Internship with an organization working on important civic issues.

THIRD SEMESTER
Seminar that enables students to develop a project where they can deepen and apply their knowledge learned in the program.

Applications due:
Friday, November 9th!

Questions?
Dr. James Riker
(301) 314-6622
jriker@umd.edu

Dr. Caitlin Haugen
(301) 314-6620
chaugen@umd.edu

Information and Applications:
WWW.BEYONDTHECLASSROOM.UMD.EDU